

20/06/2022

J. Brkić lecture on the EPLO Anniversary Day

On Monday, June 20, the EPLO celebrated its 15th Anniversary as International Organization with a special event and guest speaker the Deputy Minister for Foreign Affairs of BiH Mr. Josip Brkic, who is also an estimated member of the European Group of Public Law, the scientific council of the Organization.

The EPLO received officially the status of International Organization on the day of the summer solstice of June 21 2007 and from that day onwards this has also become an official holiday for the EPLO.

J Brkić's lecture was titled: Regional Cooperation and the European integration of the Western Balkans after the war in Ukraine and was attended by the representatives of the Greek political parties, Ministers, Academics, the Ambassadors of Ukraine, Moldova and Portugal and -among others- many friends of EPLO.