The European Institute for the Study of Chinese Law, Governance and Civilization chairs panel discussion in Beijing

The European Institute for the Study of Chinese Law, Governance and Civilization (EISCL) represented by Professor George Katrougalos, Director of the Institute, participated in the International Conference on Global Dialogue of Civilisations, held in Beijing on July 10–11. In the context of the conference, the Director had the opportunity to chair a high-level panel discussion on the theme “Diversity and Dialogue of Civilisations,” with the participation of ministers, distinguished academics, and experts from various countries. The discussion focused on the need to strengthen intercultural understanding and peaceful coexistence as fundamental pillars for building a community with a shared future for mankind.
