

20/08/2015

MOU between the European Public Law Organization and the Hellenic Open University

The European Public Law Organization and the Hellenic Open University have signed a Memorandum of Understanding to focus on the promotion of both parties' scientific, research and educational cooperation.

EPLO and EAP aim to offer and implement training and educational programs in combination with scientific conventions, meetings and the organization of scientific programs and innovative initiatives.