

22/06/2016

Round table discussion on "Modern State & Development"

A round table discussion on the subject "Modern State and Development" is organized by the Institute for Justice and Development of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) on Wednesday 22nd of June 2016 at 18.30 – 21.00, at the EPLO premise in Plaka district (entrance of the Roman Agora, Dioskouron Street and Pikilis Square).

This is the third public round-table discussion within the series of scientific events under the main topic "Law as a pillar of development" initiated by the Institute in April 2016.

The discussion Moderator will be the Honorary Chairman of the Council of State, mr Constantinos Menoudakos and main speakers include:

- Leandros Rakintzis, former General Inspector of Public Administration
- Dimitrios Raikos, Judge at the Court of the United Nations, associate professor of Public Law and Political Science of the Law School of Democritus University of Thrace, former Chairman of the Hellenic Single Public Procurement Authority,
- Konstantinos Kousoulis, Counsellor Of State,
- Nikolaos Mantzoufas, Special Secretary For Public-Private Partnerships,
- Christos Gortsos, Professor of International Finance Law at Panteion University of Athens, Secretary General of the Hellenic Bank Association and
- Elias Papaioannou, Professor of Economics at the London Business School.

Welcome speeches will be given by Professor Spyridon Flogaitis, Director of the EPLO and Mr. Nikolas Kanellopoulos, President of the Institute for Justice and Development.

The publisher "Nomiki Vivliothiki" is the media sponsor of the event.